

Privacy Statement Vondst Advocaten

This privacy statement informs you on how Vondst Advocaten N.V. ("Vondst") processes your personal data. Vondst is the data controller (in accordance with the Dutch Data Protection Act) with regard to the personal data it processes.

Purposes of processing

Vondst processes personal data for the course of practice and to provide our legal services, for recruitment or selection purposes, for the organization of seminars, sending news and updates, for the improvement of our services and to comply with statutory obligations.

Vondst may instruct other service providers to process personal data. These service providers shall act as (sub)processors and shall exclusively process the personal data on behalf of Vondst. Vondst shall not provide personal data to third parties, unless you (as the data subject) request us to do so, it arises from our activities or we are legally obliged to do so.

Vondst retains personal data no longer than necessary for the purposes mentioned.

Security

Vondst has taken appropriate technical and organizational measures to secure your personal data to avoid loss or unlawful processing.

Cookies

The website of Vondst does not use cookies that require prior consent.

Right to object, inform, correct and remove personal data

If you no longer wish that your personal data are being processed for invitations to seminars, communications on news and updates, you can inform us via the contact details below. The Dutch Data Protection Act provides the possibility under certain circumstances to request information, correction and/or deletion of your personal data. You can invoke these rights via the contact details below.

Changes

Vondst may change this privacy statement from time to time. We therefore advise you to check this privacy statement regularly.
